

WSBT-TV
South Bend, Indiana

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAM LIST
JANUARY, FEBRUARY, MARCH 1997

THIS REPORT IS NOT MEANT TO BE AN ALL-INCLUSIVE LISTING OF PROGRAMS RESPONSIVE OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

The Following Programs Gave Significant Treatment To The Issues Described

Issue	Title	Description	Time	Date	Duration
Politics	Face The Nation	Charges that Newt Gingrich violated ethics rules/chances of reelection as Speaker of the House; Recommendations by a federal advisory committee permitting the privatization of a portion of Social Security; Interview with Sen. Tom Daschle about achieving bipartisan cooperation in Congress, attempts to reach a balanced budget, privatization of Social Security/proposed reforms in Social Security and Medicare. Guest Interviewer was Ronald Brownstein, The Los Angeles Times . Guests were Rep. Charles Rangel (D., New York), Rep. Richard Armey (R., Texas) and Sen. Tom Daschle (D., South Dakota)	11:00AM	1/5/97	30 minutes
	Face The Nation	Interview with Sen. Trent Lott about: the impact of ethics charges against Newt Gingrich, Rep. Richard Armey's meeting with Republican members of the House Ethics Committee; efforts to achieve a balanced budget; proposed tax cuts. The question of whether a sitting president can be sued while in office for personal behavior. Guest Interviewer: Gloria Borger, U.S. News &amp; World Report . Guests Sen. Trent Lott (R., Mississippi), Lloyd Cutler, former White House Counsel, former Judge Robert Bork, American Enterprise Institute.	11:00AM	1/12/97	30 minutes
	Coast to Coast	"Mayor of Utica"-a profile of Ed Hanna, the outspoken May of Utica, New York who uses his sharp tongue in an effort to	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes

	whip his city into shape.
Face The Nation	Interview with Rep. John Boehner about continued Republican support for Newt Gingrich/Ethics Committee decision; Interview with Leon Panetta about: ethics charges involving Newt Gingrich; proposed balanced budget amendment; the Whitewater investigation; President Clinton's relationship with Dick Morris; the need for campaign reform; looking back at his own record. Problems faced by Presidents in their second terms. Guests included Rep. John Boehner (R., Ohio), Leon Panetta, White House Chief of Staff, Alan Brinkley, historian, Arthur Schlesinger, historian.	11:00AM	1/19/97	30 minutes
60 Minutes	"The Informer"-an interview with Sean O'Callaghan, 42-year-old former IRA man who became disenchanted with the movement and turned informer for Irish and British intelligence. O'Callaghan, who received a royal pardon because of his work as an informant, was released from prison and now lives under constant threat from his former IRA colleagues.	7:00PM	1/19/97	20 minutes
Face The Nation	Interview with Sen. John McCain about: the need for a special prosecutor to investigate fundraising practices by President Clinton's supporters; a proposed bipartisan campaign contribution reform bill; Newt Gingrich's political future; the appointment of Tony Lake as Director of the CIA; Saudi Arabia's lack of cooperation in investigation of incidents involving the loss of American lives. Analysis of developments in the O.J. Simpson civil trial. Guest Interviewer: Gloria Borger, U.S. News &amp; World Report . Guests included Sen. John McCain (R., Arizona), Laurie Levenson, Loyola Law School, Alan Dershowitz, defense attorney, Leslie Abramson, defense attorney.	11:00AM	1/26/97	30 minutes
Face The Nation	Interview with Erskin Bowles about: proposed tax cuts/tax incentives; White House fund-raising practices; Clinton Cabinet appointments. Interview with Tony Blankley about Clinton's fund-raising tactics; penalty to be paid by	11:00AM	2/2/97	30 minutes

	Newt Gingrich,; cabinet nominations: Tony Lake, Alexis Herman; Newt Gingrich's relationship with Jesse Jackson. Interview with Riddick Bowe about his decision to enlist in the Marines. Guest Interviewer: Gloria Borger, U.S. News &amp; World Report . Guests included Erskin Bowles, White House Chief of Staff, Tony Blankley, Editor-at-Large, George , Riddick Bowe, former heavyweight champion.
60 Minutes	"The Clintonization of Tony Blair"-a profile of Tony Blair, leader of Britain's Labor Party. Blair, who is running for Prime Minister is not only borrowing President Clinton's themes and rhetoric but has hired a former Clinton campaigner to help with his campaign.	7:00PM	2/2/97	20 minutes
Face The Nation	Interview with Rep. Bill Archer about: a compromise plan to balance the budget; need to reform the tax system. Interview with Franklin Raines about: proposed changes in aspects of welfare; efforts to decrease the deficit. Interview with the Rev. Jesse Jackson about his relationship with Newt Gingrich. Guest interviewer: Ronald Brownstein, The Los Angeles Times . Guests included Rep. Bill Archer (R., Texas), Franklin Raines, Director, Office of Management & Budget, Rev. Jesse Jackson, Rainbow Coalition.	11:00AM	2/9/97	30 minutes
60 Minutes	"Madam Secretary"-an interview with Madeleine Albright, America's first female Secretary of State.	7:00PM	2/9/97	20 minutes
Face The Nation	Investigation of campaign finance irregularities: allegations to the Chinese Embassy directed campaign funds to the Democratic National Committee; charges against the Republican National Committee; charges involving people invited to White House coffees. Possibility of an indictment of the President and First Lady by the Whitewater Committee. Guest Interviewer: Michael Isikoff, Newsweek . Guests included Sen. Carl Levin (D., Michigan), Sen. Don Nickles (R., Oklahoma), Michael Chertoff, former Special Counsel, Whitewater Committee, Jane Sherburn, former	11:00AM	2/16/97	30 minutes

		Special Counsel to the President.
	60 Minutes	“The Russian Army”-following the collapse of the Soviet Empire the once powerful Russian Army is faced with serious problems. The Army is billions of dollars in debt, much of its equipment is obsolete, and morale among officers and enlisted men is plummeting.	7:00PM	2/16/97	20 minutes
	Face the Nation	Debate over whether a Constitutional Amendment is needed to balance the budget. Interview with Henry Kissinger about: four-party peace talks between North and South Korea; China following the death of Deng Xiaoping. Guest Interviewers were Gloria Borger, U.S. News &amp; World Report and Thomas Friedman, The New York Times . Guests included Rep. John Kasich (R., Ohio), Robert Rubin, Secretary of the Treasury, Henry Kissinger, former Secretary of State.	11:00AM	2/23/97	30 minutes
	60 Minutes	“The Wall”-a report on Anthony Stout, President of the Battle of Normandy Foundation which solicited donations from more than 60,000 Americans who wanted to have their names or the name of a loved one inscribed on the Wall of Liberty. The wall, a memorial to the World War II veterans who served in the European theater has not been built and many veterans charge that the project was a scam.	7:00PM	2/23/97	20 minutes
Health	60 Minutes	“Managed or Mangled”-a report on managed health care programs which include coverage for mental illness. Critics charge that the bottom line is profit and that patients, many with severe psychiatric problems, are given the minimum of attention by attending physicians.	7:00PM	1/5/97	20 minutes
	60 Minutes	“Vacco v. Quill”-last spring Dr. Timothy quill successfully challenged the New York State law defining physician-assisted suicide as manslaughter. N.Y.’s Attorney General Dennis Vacco has appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court which will hear arguments on the case on January 8, 1997. Includes interviews	7:00PM	1/5/97	20 minutes with Dr. Quill' supporters and critics.

48 Hours	"Where There's Smoke: Patrick"- Patrick King is a talented 18-year-old aspiring to a career in the theater. Despite warnings that his career and health may be in jeopardy, David is having difficulty giving up smoking. "Where There's Smoke: Child's Play"-a report on the problems resulting from the ease with which underage smokers can buy cigarettes. "Where There's Smoke: vice Versa"-a report on the impact of advertising on the sale of cigarettes to young people. Includes interviews with Dave Goerlitz, the former Marlboroman, now an anti-smoking advocate and Dr. Greg Connolly, Director, Massachusetts Tobacco Control program. "Where There's Smoke: Firefight"-Dr. Greg Connolly is director of the nation's largest anti-smoking program. His strategy is to the nation's largest anti-smoking program. His strategy is to use the same advertising gimmicks employed by tobacco companies. "Where There's Smoke: Pam"-the American Cancer Society is targeting the high school class of 2000 with a special program aimed at making them the nation's first tobacco-free generation. One of the Society's commercials focuses on Pam, a 27-year-old woman suffering from emphysema due to smoking.	10:00PM	1/9/97	45 minutes
60 Minutes	"Working On a Miracle"-Dr. Mahlon Johnson, a neuropathologist at Vanderbilt Medical Center, was infected with the AIDS virus when he cut himself while performing an autopsy. Dr. Johnson immediately began treating himself with AZT and other anti-viral drugs and was subsequently found to be free of the virus. His more aggressive approach, while not seen as a cure, gives hope to other AIDS sufferers.	7:00PM	1/12/97	20 minutes
Coast to Coast	"Dr. North"-a profile of Carol North who was successfully cured of schizophrenia through kidney dialysis.	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes

		Today she is a psychiatrist at Washington University in St. Louis.
	48 Hours	“Second Chances: The Countess”-when Countess Albina Du Boisrouvray lost her only son Francois in a helicopter crash she decided to devote her life to caring for people with deadly diseases. To finance the project she sold a large portion of her multi-million dollar inheritance. The Countess raised over $100 million and began to seek out needy people and projects around the world, financing them through the Francois-Xavier Bagnoud Foundation named for her son. David Brudnoy, popular New England talk-show host and actress Sharon Stone have one thing in common. They are both actively engaged in raising money for AIDS research.	10:00PM	1/16/97	45 minutes
	Coast to Coast	“Dr. Brain”-a report on Dr. Randy Chestnut, a neurosurgeon at the Oregon Health Sciences University Hospital in Portland, whose approach to treating severe head injuries stresses the location and removal of blood clots which could result in death or serious disability.	8:00PM	1/22/97	15 minutes
	48 Hours	“Star Patient”-actress Elizabeth Taylor has undergone surgery to remove a benign tumor from her brain. Doctors expect a full recovery.	10:00PM	2/20/97	10 minutes
Crime	60 Minutes	“Bounty Hunter”-bounty hunters, claiming that they are taking criminals off the streets, are allowed to break down doors and search premises, and imprison or transport fugitives across state lines, without a judge’s order or any requirement that they be trained or licensed. Critics accuse them of unnecessary brutality.	7:00PM	1/5/97	20 minutes
	48 Hours	“Colorado Update”-a report on developments in the investigation of the murder of six-year-old JonBenet Ramsey.	10:00PM	1/9/97	10 minutes
	60 Minutes	“The 38 Million Dollar Car”- a report on a law suit involving Ken and Clancy Smith, a young Mississippi couple and Trustmark National Bank. The Smiths	7:00PM	1/12/97	20 minutes who had taken out a car loan claimed that the bank had tried to defraud them by buying an expensive insurance policy in their name without informing them. A jury decided in the Smiths' favor awarding them $38 million.

Coast to Coast	"Exploding Car"-a report on two Butte, Montana law officers who were faced with an emergency involving a troubled man who was threatening to blow himself up in his car if his wife and son were not brought to him.	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes
Coast to Coast	Dummies-a report on the Lambertville, New Jersey Police Department which places mannequins dressed in uniform in police cars as an inexpensive way to slow speeders and deter crime in general.	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes
48 Hours	"On the Run"-Rosemary Heather Miller, a convicted murderer, and Michelle Mize, serving a 25 year term for weapon possession, teamed up to escape from an Odessa, Texas prison. The women's cross country flight ended when Michelle turned herself in to authorities in Oklahoma and Heather was captured in Minneapolis. Includes interviews with friends and members of their families.	10:00PM	1/30/97	48 minutes
60 Minutes	"Canada's Dark Secret"-thousands of Nazi war criminals were granted refuge in Canada after World War II and have been living there openly for years. The Canadian Government is now following U.S. example and is trying to have the former Nazis deported.	7:00PM	2/2/97	20 minutes
60 Minutes	"veronica Guerin"-Veronica Guerin, a journalist with the Sunday Independent , one of Ireland's largest newspapers, wrote articles exposing Dublin's drug underworld. Her murder last June set off the biggest manhunt in the history of the Irish police.	7:00PM	2/2/97	20 minutes
48 Hours	"Who Gets the Kids?"-an examination of the question of who will have custody of Sydney and Justin Simpson. Plus an update on some of the people who were key figures in the O.J. Simpson criminal case.	10:00PM	2/6/97	10 minutes
60 Minutes	"The Disaster That Wasn't"-a report on	7:00PM	2/9/97	20 minutes

class-action lawsuits following a minor chemical spill at the General Chemical Company in Richmond, California. Despite the fact that few people suffered serious consequences, the chemical company still settled several class action suits for $180 million, $50 million of which went to the lawyers.

	48 Hours	"Death Row Dog"-Prince, a New Hampshire dog, was granted a reprieve from a death sentence for killing a rooster. The dog will be sent to training school and then put up for adoption.	10:00PM	2/13/97	10 minutes
	60 Minutes	"Forgive But Not Forget"-under South Africa's new leadership Apartheid's worst criminals, including former secret security captain Dirk Coetzee, can confess their crimes in exchange for complete amnesty. Black victims of their brutality are demanding redress while whites claim that they are they subject of a witch hunt.	7:00PM	2/16/97	20 minutes
	60 Minutes	"La Eme"-a report on La Eme, a Southern California prison gang whose members belong to the Mexican Mafia and whose power extends even outside prison walls. The gang, whose methods of intimidation include brutal murder, has threatened the life of Edward James Olmos, director and star of "American Me," a film telling La Eme's violent story.	7:00PM	2/23/97	20 minutes
	60 Minutes	"Sotheby's"-evidence suggests that Sotheby's auction house knowingly dealt in smuggled and looted works of art and antiquity. Includes an interview with Peter Watson, a British journalist who has written a book called Sotheby's: Inside Story .	7:00PM	2/23/97	20 minutes
Public Information	48 Hours	"Maniloonies"-interviews with fans of Barry Manilow and with columnist Bazz Bambiboy.	10:00PM	1/9/97	20 minutes
	60 Minutes	"Here Comes the Brides"-a report on the booming mail order business specializing in obtaining foreign brides for American men. Problems arise when many of the foreign women being offered are just	7:00PM	1/12/97	20 minutes looking for an easy way to become American citizens. Others find themselves victims to domineering and sometimes abusive husbands.

Coast to Coast	“Steal This Bike”-an experiment involving people in Tucson who were asked to watch the Correspondent’s bike for a few minutes. Their reactions were recorded by hidden camera.	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes
Coast to Coast	“Fly Away”-a report on cattle rancher Kent Clegg who raised eight sandbill cranes from birth. When it came time for the birds to migrant south for the winter Clegg led the way in his plane.	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes
Coast to Coast	“Kissing”-a report from the annual rodeo in Ft. Worth, Texas focusing on the romantic appeal of cowboys and describing various kinds of kisses.	8:00PM	1/15/97	15 minutes
48 Hours	“Vice or Nice?”-a Brinks truck overturned in Miami spilling money onto the highway. Schoolboy Herbert Tarvin found 85 cents and turned it over to the police. They boy was given $85 reward.	10:00PM	1/16/97	10 minutes
48 Hours	“TWA Remembered”-the wife of a TWA Flight 800 crash victim and a marine operator who volunteered as a rescue worker remember.	10:00PM	1/19/97	10 minutes
60 Minutes	“Media Mogul”-a profile of Rupert Murdoch whose media business expanded from one family newspaper to an empire that spans the globe and has major impact on public opinion. Critics, including rival Ted Turner, say that Murdoch is ignoring his responsibility to the public and is using this power to advance his own agenda.	7:00PM	1/19/97	20 minutes
60 minutes	“The Search”-“Landscape with Smokestacks,” a painting by French impressionist Edgar Degas was purchased by Daniel Searle in 1987. Searle is being sued by Nick and Simon Goodman, Los Angeles brothers who claimed that the Degas belonged to their grandfather, Freidrich Gutmann, and was stolen by the Nazis during World War II.	7:00PM	1/19/97	20 minutes
Coast to Coast	“Kindness to Strangers”-Hidden camera recorded people’s reactions when a stranger approached them looking for	8:00PM	1/22/97	15 minutes

	work in exchange for food or a place to sleep.
Coast to Coast	"Wolves"-documentary filmmakers Jim and Jamie Dutcher returned to the Sawtooth Mountains to visit a pack of wolves with whom they had lived for six years. The wolves, an almost extinct species, are now living on a protected reservation belonging to the Nez Perce Indians.	8:00PM	1/22/97	15 minutes
Coast to Coast	"Sisters"-when Pam Smith, a public relations executive in Chicago began to trace her family tree she was helped by Ann Neel, a sociologist. As the research progressed the women discovered that Ann's ancestors, slaveholders, owned members of Pam's family.	8:00PM	1/22/97	15 minutes
Coast to Coast	"Then & Now: Green Bay Rescue"-Carey Brunner, a Green Bay Wisconsin woman, risked her life when she jumped into the Fox river to save an 11-year-old boy who was drowning.	8:00PM	1/22/97	15 minutes
CBS News Special	"Cronkite Remembers"-a memoir highlighting the career of veteran newsman Walter Cronkite, featuring home movies taken by the Cronkite family, as well as film and tape clips from the CBS News library and other archives. Includes a look at the former CBS News anchor's early years and his coverage of virtually every major event of the last half of the 20 th century as well as reflections on growing up in the Depression, the Beatles' first television appearance, his interview with Frank Sinatra, being a parent in the 1960's and President Ronald Reagan. Joining Cronkite on the broadcast are his wife Betsy, and his children Nancy, Kathy and Chip and astronauts Alan Shepard and Wally Schirra, actors Ray Walston and Eli Wallach, feminist Gloria Steinem, Andy Rooney of 60 Minutes and Bernard Shaw of CNN.	10:00PM	1/26/97	58 minutes
Coast to Coast	"I Lost My Wallet"-hidden camera recorded passengers' reactions when they found a wallet in the back of a Dallas taxi.	8:00PM	1/29/97	10 minutes
Coast to Coast	"Eel Man"-Larry Seaman makes his	8:00PM	1/29/97	10 minutes

living, like generations of his family before him, trapping eels in New York City's Jamaica Bay. Urban encroachment has forced the Seaman family, one of only two families who make their living eeling in New York City, to move to Chesapeake Bay.

Coast to Coast	"Oracle"-Larry Ellison, the son of Russian immigrants, founded Oracle, a giant computer company. Ellison, who is currently worth over six billion dollars, is in the process of developing and marketing a computer which he says is as easy to use as a telephone and which will revolutionize the industry.	8:00PM	1/29/97	10 minutes
Coast to Coast	"Then and Now: Jet Ski Rescue"-19 year-old Eric Malone, a champion Jet Ski racer, rescued five people from the flood waters around Altoona, Pennsylvania.	8:00PM	1/29/97	10 minutes
CBS News Special Report	"O.J. Simpson Civil Trial"/State of the Union Address/Republican Response. The broadcast includes: A report that the jury in the civil trial of O.J. Simpson has reached a verdict, followed by context/analysis discussion among CBS News Correspondents and Consultants; live coverage of President Clinton's State of the Union Address to a joint session of Congress. Clinton on/off camera; a split screen carried both the conclusion of Clinton's address and the Bulletin that O.J. Simpson was liable for Ron Goldman's death.	8:00PM	2/4/97	3 hours
48 Hours	"Ready...Set...Shop: The Pill"-Dr. Donald W. Black, psychiatrist at the University of Iowa, is conducting a study involving the use of medication to control compulsive shopping. Two participants, Sharon Hix and Connie Tressler, have had positive results. A report on Paco Underhill, CEO, Envirosell, a consulting firm which specializes in analyzing shopping trends. Includes interviews with people who consider themselves 'champion' shoppers. Paco Underhill talks about the factors that draw the shopper's eye and induce him to buy, including the design of windows, the placement of	10:00PM	2/6/97	30 minutes mannequins, packaging of products and their location on the shelf.

48 Hours	"Terror Tale"-consumer advocate Elly Burkett helps Rick Shaggett when he runs into a problem with a television set he purchased. Ms. Burkett gives some suggestions on how a customer should proceed with a complaint in order to get satisfaction.	10:00PM	2/6/97	10 minutes
48 Hours	"Sex, Lives, Videotape"-a group of reports dealing with relationships in the '90's. Included are: a report on Marriage Savers, a marriage-preparation program started by religious writer Michael McManus in Modesto, California; a look at the way men and women go about meeting each other; a test to determine whether a couple is compatible; an interview with psychologist Barbara DeAngelis; an interview with Lois Smith Brady, a columnist who reports on unusual weddings; and profiles of couples whose marriages have lasted.	10:00PM	2/13/97	40 minutes
48 Hours	"Lost At Sea"-a report on a disaster involving the Coast Guard's elite Motor Lifeboat Corps. Three men lost their lives in a rescue attempt in the Pacific off the coast of Washington.	10:00PM	2/13/97	10 minutes
48 Hours	"The Boss"-a series of reports on the relationship between employees and their bosses, including interviews with: employees who have filed law suits against bosses they claim are abusive; Professor Harvey Hornstein, management consultant and author of Brutal Bosses and Their Prey ; Scott Adams who draws the 'Dilbert' comic strip; Herb Kelleher, CEO of Southwest Airlines, as well as critics who claim that Kelleher's attempts to create a friendly on-the-job atmosphere are too intrusive.	10:00PM	2/27/97	340 minutes
48 Hours	"When We Were Kings"-a report including exclusive footage of the making of the film "When We Were Kings," the Academy Awards-nominated documentary about the legendary fight in Zaire between Muhammad Ali and George Foreman. Also includes	10:00PM	2/27/97	15 minutes interviews with producer Leon Gast;

director Taylor Hackford.

	22 In Touch	Mary Simko talks to Fran Mohan and Jim Schwartz of the Potawatomi Zoological Society about an upcoming raffle to raise money for renovation of the Zoo's "Asian Carnivore Exhibit". The WSBT Stations are supporting this project.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/15/97 3/16/97	10 minutes
Education	CBS News Special	"The Class of 2000"-CBS News brought cameras to Joppatowne High School in Hartford County, Maryland to explore the lives of the class of 2000. The students who are involved in traditional high school activities must also confront serious current issues; drugs, sex, AIDS, teen pregnancy, economic instability and even the deaths of fellow students. Also included is footage taken by several of the school's freshmen who were equipped with camcorders to record their own stories. The program also explores a myth about life for teenagers in China where strict education and social systems may produce good results in the classroom but necessarily in the post-high school world.	8:00PM	1/23/97	58 minutes
	Coast to Coast	"Zero Tolerance"-an examination of zero tolerance, an anti-drug, anti-weapon policy in effect in some U.S. schools. Includes interviews with parents of students who were suspended for minor offenses including the possession of over-the-counter painkillers and comments by people who called in to a radio talk show on News Radio 59 WVLK in Lexington, Kentucky.	8:00PM	1/29/97	20 minutes
	22 In Touch	Mary Simko talks to Studebaker School Principal Sharon Jones about the "I Love to Read" program, which is a public service campaign presented by the WSBT Stations. This program is a reading competition among area school students, encouraging them to establish a lifelong habit of reading. Topics of this segment included tips for parents to help encourage their children to read, and the most common obstacles to a successful	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/1/97 3/2/97	30 minutes reading program. Studebaker School is one of the many schools participating in WSBT's "I Love To Read" program.

Drug Abuse	48 Hours	"Parents and Pot"-a series of reports on teenagers whose parents can't control their addiction to marijuana. Includes interviews with: some of their parents; Professor Bill Martin, Virginia Commonwealth University, who has studied the effects of marijuana for 20 years; Todd Nicholson who supervises the drug rehabilitation program for teens at Rysher Child Center; Judge F. Dennis Alvarez, Tampa, Florida Circuit Court as well as Eric Pumjon of the Dade County, Florida narcotics squad.	10:00PM	2/20/97	40 minutes
Minority Affairs	22 In Touch	Jesusa Rodriguez talked to Edison Middle School student Sharleen Jirren and Adams High School student Shalena Coble about the celebration of Black History Month in the schools. They offered their person opinions on which Black History leaders are most important to them.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/1/97 3/2/97	10 minutes
	22 In Touch	Mary Simko talks to LaSalle High School teacher Johnnie Johnson about African-American patriots who fought the Revolutionary War. This is in conjunction with Black History Month. Efforts are underway to build a memorial to Black Patriots in Washington, D.C. This is a re-broadcast of a program which ran earlier.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/8/97 3/9/97	10 minutes
	22 In Touch	Jesusa Rodriguez talks to Patricia Torres Bell about the variety of programs offered by the Housing Development Corporation of South Bend. One of these programs helps people of limited income own their own homes. Another program helps people who have lost their belongings in house fires. A third program is "Christmas in April", where volunteers chip in to repair the homes of needy people, such as senior citizens.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/15/97 3/16/97	10 minutes
	22 In Touch	Mary Simko talks to the publisher of the South Bend "Communicator", a local	5:00PM	3/22/97	10 minutes community newspaper celebrating it's 20 th anniversary. This newspaper is geared toward giving African-Americans a positive image. The publisher says too often, African-Americans are portrayed negatively in the news media. This newspaper contains positive profiles of local students, along with general news about the African-American community.	7:30AM	3/23/97

	22 In Touch	Jesusa Rodriguez talks to caseworker Juanita Rodriguez about a welfare-to-work program offered by the Indiana Department of Children and Family Services. The program is known as "IMPACT". This helps welfare recipients find appropriate employment.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/22/97 3/23/97	10 minutes
	22 In Touch	Bill Warrick talks to a South Bend businessman who is retiring and closing his tailor shop after 30 years. Joseph Szalay escaped from his native Hungary during the Hungarian Revolution of 1956. He talks about his love for America and the freedom it has afforded him.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/22/97 3/23/97	10 minutes
	22 In Touch	Jesusa Rodriguez talks to Notre Dame students about an upcoming Latino cultural festival at the University. This event is known as "Latin Expressions", and features Latino music, dance, and comedy.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/29/97 3/30/97	10 minutes
History	22 In Touch	Bill Warrick looks at the 100 th anniversary of the Copshaholm Mansion, which is the home of the Northern Indiana Historical Society. He talks to the curator about the unique features of this historic property.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/1/97 3/2/97	30 minutes
	22 In Touch	Bill Warrick talks to people "tapping the maple" trees at the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore. Park Rangers explain the making of the syrup to local school children.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/8/97 3/9/97	10 minutes
	22 In Touch	Bill Warrick videotapes a local Irish music group performing in Chesterton, Indiana. He talks to the musicians about the origins of Irish music.	5:00PM 7:30AM	3/15/97 3/16/97	10 minutes

Religion	22 In Touch	Jesusa Rodriguez talked to members of Faith Baptist Church in South Bend. The church is putting on a seminar for teenagers during the month of April. Topics include: encouraging young people to lead morally responsible lives, avoiding the temptation of drugs and gang membership.	5:00pm 7:30am	3/8/97 3/9/97	10 minutes
----------	-------------	---	------------------	------------------	------------